THURSDAY, JAN. 5, 1882.

TERMS: $2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

CHEAP READING

We are now prepared to club the Index with the following newspapers and magazines.

- Index and Leavenworth Times... 2 00
Index and Topeka Capital... 2 00
Index and Toleda Blade... 2 75

The hereditary insanity plea has been given a back-set by a number of witnesses who say they believe nothing of the kind.

On the 17th of January the annual meeting of the Kansas Wool Growers Association will be held at Topeka.

That much to be dreaded disease, small pox, is scourging the people of Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, and Kansas.

Here is a sample of the letters Giteau is in daily receipt of: "You infamous assassin! You execrable murderer!"

DAMNABLE INJUSTICE.

On Monday of this week, we handed in to the County Commissioners, a sealed bid, offering to do the county printing the coming year for $4 what the law allows.

It was a put up job all around, and shows how contemptibly mean some of these honest (?) Republicans about the court house can be.

Here is something pretty good that we take from an exchange: "Men make all sorts of excuses for not advertising."

Men who advertise, too, always do a better trade than those who do not advertise, and consequently the advertising merchant can afford to sell goods at a less percent of profit than the non-advertising dealer.

Purchasers of any line of goods will make money by consulting the papers, before purchasing, to ascertain who is advertising, and by patronizing those who advertise.

fact. The advertising merchants are, as a rule, the successful ones.

ESTRAY LIST. About the 29th of Dec., a man by the name of Green one mile and a half from Saratoga, Pratt county, took up about 30 head of stray cattle.

Northop Stevens, near Anthony has taken up a cow branded TBEL, connected with a calf at her side.
